Subject: Security Notice: Heera Group's Official YouTube Channel Compromised

This is to inform all our members and the general public that the official YouTube channel of Heera Group has been illegally hacked and taken over by Mohammed Akheel Alias Adil S/o Mohammed Bahaddur, aged 32 years and Mohammed Muneeb Khan Alias Abdullah S/o Shafiulla Khan Aged 31 years, from 1-Help Technology and Software Solutions Pvt Ltd., who were earlier engaged as IT service providers for the company. These individuals have committed a severe breach of contract and a criminal cyber offense by unlawfully accessing and seizing control of our digital property.

They are now misusing the platform and have even issued threats to the company, with malicious intentions to harm the reputation and trust of Heera Group. Their actions fall under serious cybercrimes, including hacking, identity theft, cyberstalking, and misuse of digital platforms, as outlined under Indian cybercrime laws.

Public Advisory:

- Do Not Trust Any Videos or Posts – All content currently being uploaded, edited, or shared from the compromised YouTube channel is not authorized by Heera Group.
- Do Not Interact or Engage – Avoid clicking on links, responding to messages, or commenting on the videos or posts from the channel until further notice.
- Beware of Misinformation – Disregard any updates, community posts, promotional offers, or financial appeals through this channel.
- Report Misuse Immediately – If you notice any suspicious or misleading content, kindly report it to YouTube and inform our team.
- Rely Only on Official Platforms – Visit our verified corporate website <https://heeragroupbackoffice.biz> and authenticated social media handles for genuine information.

Disclaimer:

From the date of this notice, Heera Group will not acknowledge or be responsible for any videos or posts (including community posts) published on the hacked YouTube channel. The channel is not under our control, and anything shared there does not represent our views or messages.

We are actively working with legal authorities and cybersecurity experts to take action against the offenders and to recover our YouTube channel.

Heera Group remains committed to transparency, security, and the trust of our valued members. We appreciate your cooperation and vigilance during this time. Further updates will be provided through our official channels.

For any queries or to report concerns, please contact info@heeragroupbackoffice.biz.
